GEORGE D. GADDIS

George D. Gaddis was born near Bloomington, Ill., May 23, 1859, and departed this life April 23, 1913, in Garden county, Neb., lacking only 11 days of his 54th birthday. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Andrews, of Illinois, Jan. 1, 1883, who died 18 years later. To this union were born three children, one only of whom is now living.

Mr. Gaddis came to Nebraska in the fall of 1886, filling on a homestead near Nonpareil, in Box Butte county. The following spring he brought his family to Nebraska, locating on the homestead. Later he took land near Alliance which became and still is the home ranch. In 1892 and 1894 he was engaged in the livery business in this city.

In 1902, April 2nd, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Belle C. Steele, who survives him. While on the ranch he was seriously injured by a horse falling with him, and which necessitated his relinquishing the heavy work of the farm. In 1900 he moved into Alliance where he resided until the time of his death. Mr. Gaddis' health was never the best. The last twenty years especially being very poor. The most of his life he had to contend with physical ailments.

His father dying when he was only 18 years old he became the main support of the family. He was shrewd, a careful financier, unusually successful in whatever he undertook. By economy and wise management he received a good competency where others failed. The soul of honor and uprightness, his honesty and moral integrity was never questioned. He was of a quiet retiring disposition, a sensitive nature, and inclined to be melancholy if things went wrong. Kind in his family, loyal as a citizen, none could say a word of harm against him. Held in highest esteem by all, his going was a blow not only to the family, but the church and town, and to every one of his friends and they were legion for he was an early settler and had a wide acquaintance.

His immediate relatives who remain to mourn his untimely departure are a wife, one son, Frank, an aged mother, Mrs. Lucinda Goodman, two sisters, Mrs. Belle Goodman and Miss Zoe Gaddis all of Campaign, Ill., and one brother, James Gaddis, of this city.

Mr. Gaddis was a member of the Masonic order of this city and had been for many years, also of other societies as well. During the revival meeting a year ago in this city Mr. Gaddis came into a deep religious experience and united with the M. E. church of Alliance, April 28, 1912. He was later elected as trustee in the church. His daily walk has been that of a consistent follower of his Lord and Master since beginning the Christian life. His faith and trust in God was as simple and unassuming as that of a little child, even as Christ required, saying, "Except ye be converted and become as little children ye shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven." He had the experience and the child-like simplicity, let us believe that he now has the Kingdom.

FRANK JAMES MALEK

Frank James Malek, the five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Malek, died Sunday morning, April 27, 1913, of acute bronchitis. The funeral was held from the home, Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. Fr. Maloney. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary

As announced in The Herald last week, anniversary services were held at the Christian church last Sunday evening in commemoration of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The pastor of the church, Elder Frank Allan Watson, delivered an appropriate sermon on the subject, "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." A social musical program and an historical sketch recited by James Wallace formed an interesting part of the evening's program. There was a large attendance and those present were well pleased with the rvice.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to neighbors and friends and especially Drs. Bowman and Churchill for their help and sympathy during the recent severe illness of our girls, Madge and Ellen.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES

EDITED BY BATES COPELAND

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the manership of the three old stars of the Chicago Cubs, namely, Chance, Evers and Tinker. Chance is now manager of the New York Yankees of the American League and doesn't seem to be having the best of luck, being out of the game himself thru a sprained knee during training practice. Tinker is managing the Cincinnati Reds. This is Joe Tinker's first attempt as a major league manager, a successor to Hank O'Day, last year's manager, who by the way has signed to officiate with Pres. Lynch's string of umpires. Tinker doesn't seem to be getting away with as good start as Mr. O'Day did at the opening last year. Here's hoping he finishes in better standing. The "Brain of the Game" is working his team to the best advantage. With a bad start he came out and now occupies first place by beating the Pittsburgh strong aggregation in Monday's game. Chicago will be a strong contender for the bunting this year.

Denver is the class of the Western and with so many new players seems to be as strong as last year, although more can be said about their strength after they have crossed bats with Lincoln, Sioux City and St. Joe. Johnny King will likely pitch in today's game.

The American League has been laying off for a few days owing to rainy weather. Philadelphia has been in the best form of any of the teams owing to Eddie Plank's new delivery, so F. D. McCormick states, which is "Parcel Post" delivery; but say, Mac, here is one better: When Walter Johnson pitches the fans begin to raise their umbrellas. From Johnson's "lightning speed" they fear a rain. But just the same the Athletics are a great well balanced ball team, and it will take the speed marvels, Walter Johnson or Smoky Joe Wood to head them away from that flag pole in October.

Zybisco is evidently taking a few lessons from the old Master, judging from his new tactics in the match last week at Chicago with LeMarin. Zybisco throwing him two consecutive times by the famous "Gotch" toe hold. The foreign wrestlers are slow to grasp the American wrestler's tactics in catch-as-catch-can. Once they do there is no doubt Mr. Gotch will find more difficult competition.

A great many local sports will journey to Marsland tonight (Thursday) to take in the wrestling bout between "Kid" Florain of Whitman and Gus Peterson, our local man. This in itself should furnish a very pleasant evening's entertainment aside from a few preliminary boxing bouts. By the dope these boys are very evenly matched and are in good condition to give good account of themselves.

Johnny King is flashing a big diamond ring today, the reason being he pitched his first Western League game Tuesday and won 4-1, holding Wichita to six hits and making one hit and run himself. It was a great day for Johnny and to his local friends here he looks as good as any of Mr. Hendricks' twirlers, and I believe he will have a very successful year.

Cost fight fans were treated to a good fast go in the Kilbane-Dundee fight Tuesday night. The decision of draw by Referee Eytton didn't meet with the approval of the fans and by a close study of the fight by rounds I can't see but that Kilbane was handed an injustice, although Eytton is a competent arbitrator and a man in that position is the man to observe all points, and that is what the referee goes by.

Our sister village of Hemingford has some very enthusiastic workers athletically. They are planning an inviting boxing and wrestling carnival to be held the 8th of May under the auspices of the W. O. W. Given under the management of Woodmen is a guarantee that is will be a "sham-bang" success.

W. O. W. Athletic Carnival, one evening, May 8th. Wrestling Bout between "Kid" Florain of Whitman, and Herb Eneyart of Hemingford. Best two out of three falls. Referee, Mr. Gus Peterson of Alliance. Preliminaries: 5 round boxing contest between Bert Dineen of Alliance and Ross Eneyart of Hemingford. Referee, Ex-Mayor Barnes of Alliance. Another wrestling bout between two live ones. Names to be announced later.

Tyrus Cobb, Detroit's star outfielder, is back in the fold again after holding out for more of the stipend. As he is satisfied now with his terms, I suppose he will make Detroit win the pennant.

There were five who finished the eighth grade and were presented with diplomas. The class roll is as follows: Gail Allen Price, Roy Phillips, Verda May Huckle, Leona Kennedy and Blanche Kennedy.

The patrons expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the way Mrs. Miller had conducted their school and showed their appreciation of her services by employing her to teach their next term of school at an increase of salary.

The following visitors were present at the closing exercises: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Price, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huckle, B. M. Miller, Oscar Miller, Mesdames Will Johnson, N. G. DISTRICT NO. 10

Miss Fanny McCoy closed a very successful eight months' term of school last Friday, in the home district, No. 10. She had a very nice program and the pupils were all treated to home-made candy. Miss McCoy is one of Box Butte county's most successful teachers.

ONLY EIGHT PAGES

For several weeks past each issue of The Herald has contained from twelve to sixteen pages. This week we are printing only eight pages, which accounts for the omission of several departments and the condensing of other matter. The departments omitted can go over till next issue without serious detriment, such as the chapter on the Life of Woodrow Wilson, Woman's Suffrage and W. C. T. U. departments, etc.

J. P. Hazard went out to the northeast part of Morrill county Monday to do a few days' work surveying for new settlers.

CONVENTION POSTPONED

The annual convention of women's clubs of the Sixth congressional district of Nebraska, the dates for which were Wednesday and Thursday of next week, May 7th and 8th, has been postponed until the latter part of the month, the exact dates to be announced later. This change in dates was made necessary by the order of the board of health of Alliance forbidding public meetings. It is probable that the order will be

Married

CUMMINGS-ROACH

April 29th, 1913, at 7:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilson, 210 Toluca Ave., Mr. Ira L. Cummings of Calloway, Nebraska, and Miss Rose R. Roach of this city, Rev. O. S. Baker officiating. Mr. Cummings is a dry goods merchant at Calloway, a fine young fellow. Miss Roach, a daughter of Mrs. W. M. HART-FEENEY

Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock Mr. Frank Hart of Alliance, Nebr., and Miss Marie Feeney of this city were united in marriage at St. Francis Xavier church, Rev. Father F. P. McManus performing the ceremony, which was witnessed by a number of friends and relatives.

The bride wore a pretty gown of white silk voile over messaline. Her long tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms, sent by a sister in Florida. She was attended by her sister, Mr. Frank Nolan of Alliance acted as best man. The graduate nurses of Mercy hospital formed a choir which sang before and after the service.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at St. Mary's home, the guests being the graduate nurses, Father McManus, Father Costello, Miss Anna Deer, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ouren, Mr. Frank Feeney, and Mr. Frank Hansen of Creston. Mr. and Mrs. Hart left later in the day for Alliance, where they will make their home.

PREACHED AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Sutherland of Grand Island preached at the Alliance Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. He was president of Grand Island College for many years, and is an able preacher as well as experienced and successful educator. The Alliance church has extended a call to him to act as pastor, but he has not yet informed them whether he will accept. Mrs. A. H. Robbins of this city was matron of the college during a large part of Dr. Sutherland's presidency.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hubble and two-year-old child arrived Monday morning on their return from California, having made the trip in an Overland Roadster. They left Alliance the latter part of November or first of December, and made the trip each way without any serious mishap, and enjoyed the trip very much, as well as spending the winter in the Sunset state.

Miss Hazel M. Bowman, daughter of Doctor and Mrs. L. W. Bowman, graduated last Friday from the domestic science department of the state university. She is at present visiting with friends at Wymore and other points in the eastern part of the state.

Lew Rodgers, proprietor of a garage at Scottsbluff and for several years chief of the fire department of that city, was in Alliance on a drive Monday.

Mrs. Martha E. Dustin left this week for her claim thirteen miles south of Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Howard and little daughter came down from Deadwood on 42 Wednesday morning of last week, since which time they have been stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter on north Yellowstone avenue. Mr. Howard came to Alliance for a surgical operation. He is getting along nicely and will probably be able to be out again soon. He is a railroad man and formerly resided in this city.

F. W. Lester returned this morning from Grand Island where he took a load of horses last week for Lester & Son. The stuff was sold Monday and brought fairly good prices, but the market was off the next day.

Miss Fanny McCoy expects to leave for Ashbrook, Nebr., Sunday noon, where she will visit her two sisters.

Miss Edna Duncan arrived home Tuesday noon from a two months' visit at Guyton, Okla. She visited Mrs. W. L. Wassner, formerly an Alliance girl, niece of S. C. Reck. She also visited Elva Hillis at Pacific Junction, Iowa, and Miss Belle Hamilton at Lincoln, Nebr.

rescinded soon, but it is thought best to not set the date for the meeting until it is known definitely. The program for the convention will be published in The Herald previous to the time it will be held, and due announcement made of time and place of meetings.
